Generally, a stage called psychological test is carried out in the selection process. Do you know what psychological tests are usually given? What is the example of a psychological test? Although it sounds easy, this stage is usually quite tense for fresh graduates because it is difficult to know how to answer it well. Do not worry, let's see examples of images of images and how to deal with them so that they can be accepted through my financial articles below. Feliz Reading! Examples of psychological tests that include psychological images and advice to deal with a recruitment process from the request for applicants and ending with the reception of a group of application letters. Therefore, the results will be a group of applicants chosen through the selection process. The next stage is to determine as possible employees are eligible to be accepted and what employees are rejected by their proposals. This stage is called selection, which is a series of activities carried out by the company or organization to be able in employees. [Read also: 20 ways in which a leader increases assembly work without depending on money. Point it yourself!] One of the instruments in the selection process are psychological tests. The psychological tests basically aim to understand the tendency of attitudes, personality, interests and intelligence of a person. The results of the psychological test will be a reference to determine whether a person complies with the desired set by the company or not through an image (psychogram profile) to each individual who takes the test. [Read also: 10 ++ herbal plants can be medicine, how much to find it, you know it!] Well, before doing so, it is not more than doing the following tips: drawing a human according to Your sex. If you are a woman, then draw a woman, vice versa. Complete human images from the tip of the hair to the foot. Do not also forget photos of other limbs as a whole. The most detailed possible. If you draw a world, you must extract a complete music from official clothing to usual activities. Do not do the face of the person you did because this will mean that you are a person who has no confidence. Do not make the image too big because it will mean that you look dominant. Try to draw the details of the person's finger. #4 On -work drawing tests (Baum) In this psychological test, the examiner will tell you to draw an upper on paper. Baum's test is a test that instructs to draw an also of the also varies from roots, unions, branches, stems and leaves. In this evidence, the rules that you must obey are to draw an also of the also (dicotyledon), not an ä Erbol of tim not to bathe as plants, cocotes and bamboo. We are now now! The evaluation of the character of the participants of the event begins from several aspects of the image. Kambium shows self -confidence, the stem indicates the frankness, the roots describe stability and leaves can see introverted or extroverted. Tips for drawing is drawing a complete resistant tree with branches, leaves and fruits. Then also write the type of tree that draws briefly. #5 The tests of Kraepelin and Pauli Kraepelin and Pauli or known as newspaper tests are a test in the form of several numbers (columns). The kraepeline test is a test that calculates the number of numbers and more, while the Pauli test calculates the number of numbers down. Kraepelin and Pauli tests the accuracy, durability and focus power of a person when calculating a number of numbers. By completing questions, look for the right rhythm so that time can be used properly. [Read also: Want to apply for a job? Avoid some of the causes of this interview failure] The most important thing to submit to this test is the focus, a strong concentration to calculate the number of numbers. And don't forget the following tips: use ordinary pencils that are not recommended to use mechanical pencils that are vulnerable to broken. Prepare a minimum of 2 pencils and also the sharpener so that the pencil can be used suddenly broken. You are not allowed to remove the wrong answer. It should be enough to cross the answer and then write the correct answer next to you. Do not hesitate to ask the examiner if there is something you do not understand.
